A GOOD GUESS

(By Wilberforce Jenkins.)

"Now what is the height of bliss?" quoth she.
"Well, I should imagine 'twas five feet three."
With a smiling glance, quoth he.
"I would not say but a little more—
Between five three and a scant five four."
"I'm five feet two and half," she said,
"Without this pompadour on my head."
"I think," quoth he, "that my guess was fair,
To miss the same by a breadth of hair."

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

The musical given Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. R. Brown by the Sunshine society was a particularly enjoyable affair and was a success both from the musical and financial standpoint.

The Misses Francis Clark and Gertrude Ellis collected the "silver offering" from the guests at the doorway, and quite a sum was realized with which to carry on the work of the society in aiding the baby fund.

A delightful program of music and readings was given, including a piano solo by Francis L. Moore in his usual finished style.

Miss Gertrude Ellis gave two pleasing vocal numbers. She is the possessor of an unusually sweet voice and graceful presence.

The readings by Mrs. Hallington were especially well given and called forth much applause.

Mr. and Mrs. Parvita Witte's delightful voices were heard to advantage in several beautiful solos. The violin solo by Russell Brooks was a most pleasing number and well received.

Mrs. Leila Moore's warmly sympathetic voice gave pleasure to her hearers, as it always does.

Mrs. W. W. Evans' solo and encore songs were delightfully sung. Mrs. Evans' voice is a dramatic contralto of reasonable range and quality.

The solo by Mrs. W. D. Howe was especially enjoyable. Mrs. Howe's voice has a rare charm that is always pleasing to her hearers.

Mrs. W. R. Brown and Francis Moore were the accompanists for the evening.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Judd, the president of the society thanked those taking part in the program and also Mrs. Brown for the use of her home. A social time was enjoyed and punch was served to the guests by Mrs. F. C. Earle, Mrs. Guy L. Warren and the Misses Ethel White and Ethel Walz.

A box social was given by the Royal Neighbors of America at Mrs. Figueroa's residence, 1114 Arizona street, Wednesday night. The house was decorated with little hatchets in the colors of the order.

High Five was indulged in, Mrs. Florence Reed receiving first prize for women, and Mr. Johnson first prize for men, after which the boxes were distributed.

Tuesday afternoon and evening the women of the First Baptist church will have a social and also an exhibit of rare old quilts and counterpanes in the parlors of the church.

The quilts are all heirlooms, handed down from grand mothers' days, when needle work was a fine art.

The regular meeting of the Charity association will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Turney.

RETURNING EL PASOANS.

Mrs. R. F. Campbell returned home Thursday morning from a delightful visit with relatives and friends in San Antonio, Austin and Waco, Texas. At Waco Mrs. Campbell visited her uncle, Dr. D. R. Wallace, who saw the Halley comet 75 years ago. Dr. Wallace is now 85 years old.
